This service is funded by the Australian Government's Department of Social Services.

UnitingSA acknowledges the traditional owners of country throughout South Australia, their spiritual heritage, living culture and our walk together towards reconciliation.

Our Disability Employment Service can offer businesses professional recruitment solutions that connect employers with motivated jobseekers.

We provide professional guidance and support for jobseekers with a disability to help them gain and maintain employment to suit their skills, qualifications and goals.

How will you benefit?

As an employer, you will have access to:

- A free recruitment service
- Capable employees who match your needs
- Government incentives including wage subsidies and supported wages (subject to eligibility)
- Onsite training if required
- Post-placement support
- Funded workplace modifications if required

How does it work?

Our experienced Business Liaison Officer will work closely with you and your business to meet your recruitment needs.

They will:

- Discuss job details with you
- Match jobseekers with available positions
- Instigate applicant interview
- Work with you to ensure a smooth transition
- Facilitate work trials if needed
- Help you apply for government incentives
- Provide ongoing job support
- Help with training as required
- Assist with minimal paperwork

Who are we?

Employment and Training Support works with employers to successfully recruit and works closely with employees to help them gain and retain meaningful employment.

UnitingSA is a not-for-profit organisation all about respect, compassion and justice. With a long and proud history of building stronger communities, our can-do attitude is dedicated to supporting South Australians.
