

BORDERTOWN DISABILITY SERVICES

WANT SUPPORT WITH THE NDIS?

Helping residents across the upper
Limestone Coast to live your best life

LOCAL DISABILITY SUPPORT

Just joined the NDIS? Already have a plan? Or need help getting started? We can support you.

UnitingSA Bordertown Disability Services is a registered National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) provider dedicated to supporting residents across the upper Limestone Coast.

We have an office at 63 Farquhar St, Bordertown and can come to you no matter where you live, from Naracoorte to Keith, across to the coast and everywhere in between.

How can we help?

Whether you need just a little help or more intensive support, we can assist you to reach your potential at home, at work and in the community.

Live independently

Assistance with daily tasks, such as preparing meals, showering, cleaning, shopping and getting places.

Develop new skills

Help to get the most out of life by building new skills, like how to cook, budget or use new technology.

Find a job now or in the future

Support to link you with the training you want or find a job that matches your skills and interests.

Get out and about

Support to do the things you most enjoy, like trying a new activity, making new friends or just getting out and about.

Not sure if we provide the support you need? Give us a call, and we'll work hard to find a solution.
