Our URBAN Youth program ensures young people aged between 10 and 25 across Adelaide are heard and supported.

UnitingSA is all about giving young people information, advocacy and support to overcome challenges.

We’re here to listen without judgement and connect you with your community.

How can we help?

Our team of experienced staff provide services to help young people:

- Build resilience
- Address and manage mental health issues
- Sort out their finances
- Develop practical life skills
- Complete and/or reconnect with their education
- Feel connected with their local community
- Get involved in group-based programs
- Access other community services and support
- Participate in youth-led events

Who are we?

Child, Youth and Family Services are all about providing people access to support, education and advocacy to help you and your family.

This service is run by UnitingSA — a not-for-profit organisation all about respect, compassion and justice. With a long and proud history of building stronger communities, UnitingSA’s can-do attitude is dedicated to supporting South Australians.

Want to know more?

Give us a call on 1800 714 051 and book a time to meet up.

We’re available Mon to Fri, 9am to 5pm.

Who can we help?

Young people can self-refer or be referred by families, schools, or agency workers.

We support all young people at risk, including:

- Those under the Guardianship of the Minister
- Youth in the juvenile justice system
- People who are Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander
- Those from diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds
