ParentsNext helps parents prepare to join or re-enter the paid workforce by the time their youngest child starts school.

What is ParentsNext?

We understand that juggling parenthood and employment is challenging for many families.

Through ParentsNext we support parents to:

- Identify their education and employment goals
- Develop a pathway to achieving their goals
- Combine preparing for work with their parenting responsibilities
- Access services in the community

We can also help parents:

- Increase their educational qualifications
- Identify and address barriers to employment
- Develop practical skills to get a job
- Access child care assistance

You may also be eligible for funding to support your education and employment goals.

Who can we help?

Parents are eligible for ParentsNext if they:

- Have a child aged under six years
- Have been receiving Parenting Payment for the past six months
- Have not been in paid work in the past six months

Parents who are required to participate as a condition of receiving the Parenting Payment will be contacted by Services Australia (Centrelink).

Who are we?

This service is run by UnitingSA — a not-for-profit organisation all about respect, compassion and justice. With a long and proud history of building stronger communities, UnitingSA's can-do attitude is dedicated to supporting South Australians.
