ETHNIC LINK SERVICES

Connecting culturally and linguistically diverse communities with SA services

Ethnic Link Services can assist you to remain living independently at home and in your community.

We work with you to ensure that you can communicate in your own language when using services and that your cultural traditions and beliefs will be considered.

How can we help?

Our bilingual and bicultural staff are trained in aged care service delivery to support you and your carer.

We can:

- Provide a language service by interpreting for you
- Communicate between you and service providers
- Support you by making appointments
- Assist with correspondence, such as letters, documents and forms
- Help you get involved in social and therapeutic activities
- Provide you with information about the Commonwealth Home Support Programme and other aged care services
- Run language-specific social support groups
- Provide home visits and social support for vulnerable or isolated people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.

Who are we?

Ethnic Link Services supports people and their carers from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds. It is a statewide service, with offices in metropolitan Adelaide, the Riverland and Whyalla.

We speak your language to connect you with services and help you remain living independently at home and in your community.

Ethnic Link Services is run by UnitingSA — a not-for-profit organisation all about personalised aged care experiences. Our choice of flexible care options, from home support through to residential aged care, promote inclusion, respect and participation.
