

At the Adelaide North West Homelessness Alliance, we believe safe and appropriate housing is a human right and essential to wellbeing and independence.

That's why we're committed to providing support and services to young people, Aboriginal people, adults and families who are experiencing or at risk of homelessness across Adelaide's north and west, extending as far as the Barossa Valley.

We provide services through a collaborative partnership between the South Australian Housing Authority and seven for-purpose community organisations, including:

- Aboriginal Sobriety Group
- AnglicareSA
- Centacare Catholic Family Services
- St John's Youth Services
- The Salvation Army
- Uniting Communities
- UnitingSA

Together, we aim to provide access to safe and supported accommodation options that lead people towards independence and belonging.

Our services:

The Adelaide North West Homelessness Alliance offers a range of services for people experiencing or at risk of homelessness, including:

Services for Adults (over 25) and Families

We can help you to:

- Find and access the right support, at the right time with the right service
- Access case management that meets your needs
- Access referrals to other services
- Find and maintain housing
- Live independently
- Get involved in your community
- Access education, employment and training support

Services for Young People (aged 15-25)

We aim to work in partnership with you to address the causes of your homelessness, acting promptly when you need us, and responding early to support you to overcome challenges.

Our Youth Services are provided by Centacare, The Salvation Army, St John's Youth Services and UnitingSA.

Foyer Port Adelaide

Foyer Port Adelaide provides independent accommodation for young people who want to engage with education, training and/or employment.

Foyer Port Adelaide aims to provide young people with support and mentoring to:

- Develop independent living skills
- Obtain and/or maintain education, training or employment
- Engage positively with local communities

Aboriginal-Specific Services

Our Western Aboriginal Specific Homelessness Service is provided by the Aboriginal Sobriety Group Indigenous Corporation (ASG), which provides a culturally safe place for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

This service offers supported transitional and crisis accommodation, including case management, through a holistic and healing approach to sobriety.

This service includes:

- Cultural community engagement
- Guidance from Aboriginal Elders

Kurlana Tampawardli (KT)

Kurlana Tampawardli is Kurna for 'new house on the plains' and is delivered by Uniting Communities.

The focus of the KT service is to support you and your family's needs in a culturally safe way. We can work with you if you are at risk of rough sleeping or overcrowding in your home.
