UnitingSA acknowledges the Traditional Owners of country throughout South Australia, their spiritual heritage, living culture and our walk together towards reconciliation.

Updated February 2025

Our URBAN Youth program ensures young people are heard and supported through life's challenges.

We offer one-to-one case management support, information and advocacy.

How can we help?

Our experienced team are here to listen without judgement and help young people:

- Build capacity
- Navigate mental health issues
- Consider their financial priorities
- Develop practical life skills
- Reconnect and continue their education
- Connect with their local community
- Get involved in group-based programs
- Access other community services and support

Who can we help?

Young people between 10-25, living in the southern or western regions of Adelaide can self-refer or be referred by families, schools or agency workers.

We support all young people at risk, including:

- Those under the Guardianship of the Minister
- Youth in the juvenile justice system
- People who are Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander
- Those from diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds
- Those who are part of LGBTIQ+ communities

Who are we?

Child, Youth and Family Services provide support, education and advocacy to help families, children and young people embrace life.

This service is run by UnitingSA — a not-for-profit organisation all about respect, compassion and justice. With a long and proud history of building stronger communities, UnitingSA's can-do attitude is dedicated to supporting South Australians.
